It is amazing to think that we are already at the end of our semester. Our junior high students worked tremendously hard this week on their exams. These are good practice for when they reach high school. Our students also participated in a Panther Pride activity this Wednesday. Some of the groups made cards while others created ornaments to share. These will be shared with people at our "Breaking Bread" on Saturday mornings as well as at some of the local nursing homes. It was a fun time for us to spread some holiday cheer while working with kids from other classes.

On the backside of the Panther Post we have all of the Altar Server assignments for all of Christmas Break. If you have a child that is a server, please make sure to look it over. Last week we sent home a copy of the server schedule for the next 6 months. I always include the weekly schedule, but this is useful if you are planning a trip. Remember, if you are assigned a weekend and cannot work, it is your responsibility to find a substitute to cover.

As the season closes, I wanted to take a moment and say how proud I am of the boys' basketball and girls' cheerleading squads. They have put a lot of practice in and have shown a lot of pride in their teams. A special thank you to all of our coaches who have volunteered their time to make this a great season. As we return from break the girls' basketball season is getting ready to start. I look forward to watching their season.

The secret is out. Our next school musical will be, Peter Pan Jr. The school musical is open to anyone in grades 3-8. The auditions will take place on Monday, January 22 and Tuesday, January 23. In order for the students to audition they will need to fill out the forms and turn them back in by January 15. This is a great school tradition and an important part of our school year. I can't wait to hear the gym fill with music and to see the work that the students put in to make this a great play.

Congratulations go out to Becca Geuss, Tina Geuss, and Bella Santaella. They were the Knights of Columbus # 1231 winners of the "Keep Christ in Christmas" poster contest. They were given a certificate and prize. Thank you to the Knights for sponsoring such a fun contest! On behalf of my staff, please have a very merry and safe Christmas. We also wish you the best for the New Year. God bless and have a wonderful break!
