The short weeks really seem to fly by. I was able to observe students working on science experiments, creating stories, looking for anything with the letter F (preschool), and giving their personal best. That is all that we can ask for from our students. With the growth mindset that we are using, we know that our best effort will help us grow into better versions of ourselves.

Next week is going to have a couple of terrific activities. Our book fair will begin on Monday and close next Friday. Mrs. Weller has been working hard to set up the book fair. It is a great fundraiser that helps us purchase books and supplies for the library. Next Friday is also our Grandparents' Day. Grandparents are able to come and spend the morning with our students. They will attend Mass at 9:00 and eat lunch. One difference is that we will not have a photographer for set photos this year. There will be different stations set up for families to take their own photos with their phones or cameras. Please let the grandparents know to bring a phone or camera for the event.

Please remember that school dismisses at 3:00 Friday. If your child is leaving with their grandparents then the grandparents need to make sure to sign the students out in their homerooms that day. In addition to that, please remember that we will have an early release day on Wednesday. School will dismiss at 1:45 and there will be latchkey.

With the month of September kicking off this week, we began our next character trait. This month our trait is "Determination". Our I will statements are: I will set the right goals, face challenges with a growth mindset, view failures as a learning experience, never give up on what I know is right. Our guiding scripture comes from Hebrews 12:1-2. The 8th grade is going to organize our service project this month. They will be putting together "Blessing Bags". These are little bags of toiletries and other household items that we can give to the poor or homeless. A lot of families would pass these out to people in need on their way to an event in downtown Cincinnati. We also have passed them out during our "Breaking Bread" breakfast ministry that takes place every Saturday. We are asking for hotel or travel size donations of deodorant, toothpaste, soap, shampoo, and toothbrushes. Thank you for your help!

Thank you for all those who have placed their order for spirit wear and uniform sweatshirts. Those that haven't please remember that the end of Sunday is the deadline. In the order we have mentioned that we are transitioning away from the hoodie sweatshirts. A couple of parents have approached me and mentioned that their children do not like the dri-fit material. One of the options has a cotton fleece lining. It is also important to note that the hoodies will be good this year and it will not be a uniform requirement until next school year. We will have a second spirit wear sale closer to the Christmas Season.
